HOW

How will we use the information about you?

We will use the information you provide in a manner that conforms to the Data Protection (Jersey) Law 2018.

We will endeavour to keep your information accurate and up to date and not keep it for longer than is necessary. In some instances the law sets the length of time information has to be kept. Please ask to see our retention schedules for more detail about how long we retain your information.

We may not be able to provide you with a service unless we have enough information or your permission to use that information.

We will not pass any personal data on to anyone outside of the States of Jersey, other than those who either process information on our behalf, or because of a legal or statutory requirement, and we will only do so, where possible, after we have ensured that sufficient steps have been taken by the recipient to protect your personal data.

We will not disclose any information that you provide ‘in confidence’, to anyone else without your permission, except in the few situations where disclosure is required by law, or where we have good reason to believe that failing to share the information would put someone else at risk. You will be told about this unless there are exceptional reasons for us not to do so.

We do, on occasion process your information overseas using web services that are hosted outside the European Economic Area, for example Google Classroom or Facebook. This is processed in the US, but has been approved by another competent supervisory authority under Article 40 of the GDPR or equivalent statutory provisions, together with binding and enforceable commitments of the controller and processor to apply the appropriate safeguards such as information security procedures and checks.

We upload children’s data to the Education Software Solutions database that is hosted in the European Union. In addition, children’s data may be uploaded to GL Assessments, exam boards such as AQA, EdExcel etc. We also upload pupil’s data to a select few web based servers for education purposes and to facilitate contact and / or communication with you about your child’s schooling. The school has considered that the use of each and every application is warranted in terms of the benefits they provide to both pupils and staff and have carefully reviewed the security provisions and Data Protection Policies. A list of these applications can be found on the school website and we will communicate with you when a new application is utilised.

Data Sharing
